INTRODUCTION
Academy of Islamic Studies, University of Malaya was known as Department of Islamic Studies. The main objective of the Academy is to equip, advance and promote the academic standards in research and teaching of Islamic studies. The Academy is now managed by a director with three (3) deputy directors and head of departments.

The University of Malaya library consists of a Central Library which provides library facilities for the whole campus and a network of branch and special libraries to meet the specific needs of several faculties. The libraries have the role of the center of the campus where students can be found. The Academy of Islamic Studies has its own library facilities for research, learning and teaching. The library collection consists of:

- General collection of academic disciplines, including teaching and research collections on subjects in the fields of Islamic Studies.
- Reference collection consisting of reference materials such as dictionaries, periodicals, and periodicals.
- Monograph collection with mono-discipline as well as books written in English and Arabic.
- Special collection with rare and valuable titles from the private and institutional collections, such as collections of rare and valuable titles.

The Library Service Counter provides loans, returns, renewals, and reservations service for external users. In addition, the library also provides services available for final year undergraduates, postgraduates, and faculty.

The sector also provides training that is obtained from the library. The survey satisfaction survey carried out among the academicians. It hoped that the findings of the study would be beneficial and encourage librarians and library managers to improve the environment of the library.

OBJECTIVE OF THE STUDY
The objective of this study is to investigate the level of satisfaction among academicians towards library collections and services.

LITERATURE REVIEW
This section describes the literature review on the satisfaction level of academicians towards library collections, services and environment. The study of the level of satisfaction among academicians towards library collections, services, and environment. Researchers have used different methods to study the level of satisfaction among academicians towards library collections, services, and environment. The findings of this study were analyzed in accordance with the objectives of the study; i. Satisfaction Level Among Academicians Towards Library Collections, Services and Environment

FINDINGS
This paper describes a user survey carried out at Academy of Islamic Studies, University of Malaya as an initiative to communicate with library users. This preliminary study was conducted to investigate the satisfaction level among academicians towards library collections, services and environment; (i) level of satisfaction among academicians towards library collections, services and environment. The survey data was tabulated and analyzed using SPSS. The mean satisfaction level was calculated and analyzed.

The data was calculated and analyzed using SPSS.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Variable</th>
<th>Mean</th>
<th>SD</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Satisfaction Level Among Academicians: Research Library Collections, Services and Environment</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mean satisfaction level of library collections, services and environment</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Figures:
Figure 1. Mean Satisfaction Towards Library Collections, Services and Environment
Figure 2. Mean Level of Satisfaction towards Library Collections
Figure 3. Mean Level of Satisfaction towards Library Collections

REFERENCES
Norliya Ahmad Kassim, Khasiah Zakaria, & Haslinda Mohamed. (9-11 June 2008).