Hosting the king's celebration of the birthday of the Prophet ﷺ, His Highness the Amir has ordered the provision of blankets, clothes, and other necessities for needy citizens.

On the order of His Highness the Amir, merchants have been directed to stock up on blankets, clothes, and necessities for needy citizens throughout the country. The Amir has ordered the preparation of 50,000 blankets, 100,000 clothes, and 20,000 sets of necessities for needy persons. These necessities will be distributed throughout the Kingdom.

His Highness the Amir has directed the Governor of each province to appoint a committee to identify needy persons in their respective provinces and to distribute the necessary supplies to them. The Amir has also directed the Director of Social Services in each province to ensure that the necessary arrangements are made to receive and distribute the supplies.

The Amir has emphasized the importance of this initiative to provide assistance to needy persons and to alleviate their suffering. He has urged all citizens to contribute to this noble cause.

The Amir has also directed that the necessary steps be taken to ensure the prompt distribution of these supplies to needy persons.

The Amir has expressed his gratitude to all those who have contributed to this noble initiative and has called on all citizens to continue to support this cause.
